Who are these people? The Art Directors Club of Houston is a non-profit organization for those involved in all aspects of advertising and graphic design. Founded in 1955, our members include art directors, graphic designers, production artists, copywriters, photographers, stylists, illustrators, web designers, media producers and others in related fields - including students and teachers.

Benefits:

- Discounted admission to regularly scheduled ADCH Events.
- Free listing available on the ADCH web site (membership listing page coming Sept. 2007.)
- Employment listings on the ADCH web site. Member companies and members looking for work may publish their listings here.
- The right to vote in elections and the privilege to hold office on the ADCH Board.
- Every fourth membership is free when four or more memberships are purchased by your company.
